

Esther: Woman of Faith and Courage (Women of Faith Series: Old Testament Book 1)

The Bible contains many examples of courage and faith. One of the most inspiring women of the Bible was a Jewish woman named Esther. Her life and ministry were so profound and of such great value that she is one of only two women who have a book of the Bible that bears her name. In this book we find out more about Queen Esther, how a young Jewish girl became a queen under Persian rule. How this Jewish woman's courage saved a nation and how much courage and faith it required. The story of Esther is a historical figure in addition to being a faithful woman in the Bible. Find out more about Esther's life, her ministry, and the leadership qualities she displayed that saved her people from genocide.
