

True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin

In these writings Blessed Grignon de Montfort explains in detail, in this classic, what is required of us to have True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The teaching of Blessed Grignon de Montfort is further illustrated by the words spoken by the Blessed Virgin to St. Bridget. She said:

He who sees God sees me; and he who sees me may see the Divinity and Humanity in me as in a mirror, and me in God. For whoever sees God sees Three Persons in Him; and whoever sees me sees, as it were, the Three Persons. For the deity folded me in Itself with my soul and body, and filled me with every virtue, so that there is no virtue in God which does not shine in me. - Rev., c I. chap. xlii. A true devotion to Mary is indeed a straight and sure path to a deeper understanding and relationship with Christ. Jesus Christ is the last end of true devotion to Mary. Impr 1909, 198 pages.
