

My Daddy the King: Is Very Busy

A little princess tells a story about her beloved heavenly Father Who is very busy.

Through her story, we learn that He delights in the creatures He has made, and that she also is important to Him. Because He delights in her as well, He goes out of His way to make time for her! This story will help children believe that God can be a close friend, just like he was to Abraham, and that they are important to Him, too. This is a perfect sized book for small hands. The cover has a colorful glossy finish. The interior is full color and has large print. The text is framed on a scroll design on the pages facing the pictures. This book consists of forty-two pages and is printed in the United States of America.
