

Hugo the Flying Firefighter (Hugo series)

Hugo the elephant becomes an unexpected hero when he saves a neighbors house from fire in this delightful picture book. While flying one afternoon in his plane, Wilco, Hugo spots smoke coming from one of the houses in Hometown. With Wilcos help, quick-thinking Hugo skywrites FIRE above the town, alerting the residents and the fire department to the danger. With his handy elephant trunk, Hugo is then first on the ground to help put out the flames. Strong colors, bold illustrations, and an exciting and straightforward plot make this a charming adventure for parents to read to their toddlers or for very young readers to tackle independently.
