

Continuing the Journey: The Geography of Our Faith (ACRS Memoirs)

Here sixteen Mennonite writers, whose lives have had worldwide impact while linked to service at Eastern Mennonite University, map their life journeys across the geography of their lives, thought, and faith perspectives. Among the riches you can claim in this book are the ways these thinkers dealt with change in the Mennonite church, change in themselves, and change in society, observes Katie Funk Wiebe, noted Mennonite author. Turn names often seen in news articles into friends extending a special gift to you of what life did to them and what they did with life. John A. Lapp, Executive Secretary Emeritus of Mennonite Central Committee, believes This collection of memoirs represents an enormous gift to the families, colleagues, students, friends, posterity in general. And Myron S. Augsburger, President Emeritus of Eastern Mennonite University, says This volume offers a remarkable insight into the uniqueness that makes a small denomination like the Mennonites relevant as a free church in society.
