

Lets Go Hiking: Boys Life Series (DK READERS)

Hiking is Americas favorite outdoor recreational activity, well in advance of cycling, swimming, and even football. This important contribution to the Boys Life Readers series encourages boys to become familiar with the great outdoors and to enjoy reading about nature trails that lead to waterfalls, meadows full of wildflowers, mountaintops, swimming holes, picnic areas, and campgrounds. The specially commissioned photographs of boys having fun on the trail will inspire and encourage young boys to explore the world around them, while improving their reading skills.
