

Emily Goes Wild

Fall in love with Emily, an irresistible monkey with a taste for beignets and mischief, and Madame Dubois, the refined New Orleans matriarch who cares for her. The two spend their days shopping in the outdoor market, playing the piano, and painting pictures to decorate the house. Madame Dubois doesn't mind cleaning up when Emily paints on the wall with mustard, swings from a chandelier, or dumps over the garbage—until one day, when Emily Goes Wild! Something profound changes in Emily that fateful day, and Madame Dubois must make a heartbreaking decision. Will Emily give up her fancy designer clothes, frilly French bedroom, and beignets at Cafe du Monde? Find out what happens in this heartwarming tale about a spirited little monkey named Emily who finds her wild side! Award-winning designer and best-selling author, Betty Lou Phillips is a professional member of the American Society of Interior Designers. With projects from New York to California, her work has been featured in countless magazines, as well as in her numerous home design books on French and Italian style. Interiors by Design—her 13th design book—is the ultimate guide to home decor. Additionally, she has appeared on the Christopher Lowell Show and the Oprah Winfrey Show. She lives in Dallas, Texas. Betty Lou Phillips is the author of Emily Goes Wild!, an illustrated children's book, and co-author of The Night Before Christmas in Paris. Later this year Gibbs Smith Publisher will release her Night Before Christmas in New York and Night Before Christmas in Texas.
