

Silver Thread, the Ups and Downs of a Mennonite Family in Mission (1895 - 1995)

Silver Thread is a warm, historical account of three generations of Mennonites, serving first in East Africa and later in war-torn Central America. What happened when sincere, plain-dressed Mennonites from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, went to east Africa to help the local people and to share their faith? By the third generation, Mennonites have changed the way they do mission. Silver Thread is a Mennonite mission love story, told with forthright grace and an eye on the realities of learning to live with different cultural understandings.
