

Habitudes # 3

The Art of Leading Others covers the following topics: Personal Example Focus and Vision Influence Leading Change Priorities Starting Small Team Building Planning Decision Making Diligence Attitude and Passion Initiative Purpose. HABITUDES is a breakthrough way to teach leadership principles, to a post-modern student. Loaded with thirteen images, this third book in the series captures the art of leading others. We must discover how to lead and influence those around us. It covers character issues like leading teams and organizations, such as focused vision, people skills, strategy, choosing priorities, modeling behavior, team building, initiative and more. Full color photographs throughout the book make it a keeper for students to use and to teach from after they have gone through it. Today's student is EPIC: Experiential, Participatory, Image-driven and Connected. See how Habitudes enables you to teach leadership in groups in an experiential and memorable way: using pictures and exercises. The faith-based version of this resource has been developed as a tool for Christian schools and ministries. It includes a Look at the Book section that gives a biblical illustration for each leadership principle as well as additional discussion questions based on the scripture reference. Target Age Range: 16-24 years old. Also available is the Values-Based Edition of this resource, for public programs and corporate settings.
