

The Skunk that Wants a Hug

A story that teaches us to allow time for others see who we are inside, and for us to take the time to get to know others when we meet them, beyond what we think we already know about them. A childrens story book about a skunk who experiences a surprise reaction to his friendly approach and learns through the gentle guidance of forest friends how to let others get to know who he is inside, and a life lesson about making friends. 18 beautiful color illustrations. A book that the very young will love having read to them, and that early readers will enjoy reading for themselves.
