

Breaking All The Rules!: Mr. America takes your training to a whole new level while eating your favorite foods! (Mr. Americas Shape-Up Series Book 4)

Breaking All The Rules! is the 4th ebook in the 5-part Mr.Americas Shape-Up Series. In it, John details how he takes his own training, as well as that of his clients, to a different level with clear explanations as to the reasons why. While using unconventional but enjoyable dietary practices (while eating carbs!!!) John shows how he maintains high levels of energy and muscle while keeping very little body fat. This is the time of year that John uses to focus in on some of the higher intensity techniques and combines them with specific dietary adjustments in a big push for maximum muscle mass just before entering the last, peaking phase of the year.
