

The UnFROGetable Costume Party: (Doing Good Deeds) (The UnFROGetable Series)

This story is about doing the right things for the wrong reasons. Hoppity Frog dreams of dressing up as a super hero for a costume party that evening but throughout the day he uses his time doing good deeds for others so he would be liked. At the end of the day he has not finished his costume. With the aid of friends he discovers an important life lesson. Will Hoppity Frog stay home or will he go to the party without his super hero costume? For those who attend the party, they are in for an unFROGetable surprise! This fun read-aloud picture book is designed to empower children in solving everyday problems. Questions are presented in this story to encourage discussions between parent/teacher/mentor and child. The book uses 1st - 4th grade vocabulary words and is recommended for Pre-K/Elementary age children and their adults.
