

Lectionary Preaching Workbook (Consensus Lectionaries)

Lectionary Preaching Workbook, Series B, is a sermon resource book on all three texts for every Sunday of the church year. Printed with wide margins for workspace, it is the one book you will look at every week to get started on your Sunday sermon. Included in the text are: An introduction to Mark's Gospel. An overview of each church season, including its meaning, message, mood, liturgical propers, theology, observance, customs, contemporary, understanding, and preaching goals. Lesson context and suggested outlines, themes, and thoughts on each of the three texts for each Sunday, including what Brokhoff calls Preaching Possibilities for every text. A general list of resources, commentaries, and preaching aids that deal with Series B. John R. Brokhoff, a pastor and eminently successful preacher for more than three decades, is Professor Emeritus of Homiletics, Emory University, Candler School of Theology, Atlanta. A graduate of Muhlenberg College and the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, Dr. Brokhoff was awarded the Doctor of Divinity Degree from Muhlenberg. He has served parishes in Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Georgia, and Virginia.
