

Look Out, Mouse! (I Like to Read)

Farmer Fred forgot to feed the horse! Mouse nibbles holes in the horses feed bag and all is well for the horse, but not for Mouse. Look out, Mouse! A cat, a snake, an owl, and a fox pursue him. But the horse neighs, the dog barks, chickens cluck, Farmer Fred comes out of his house, and Mouse is finally safe. Meanwhile, Mouse runs into the house but it is still dinnertime so, look out, house! Mouse is about to make himself at home. About the Series I Like to Read books are picture books written and illustrated so that even the newest reader can enjoy a satisfying, quality literary experience. The books in the series are written at kindergarten and early first grade reading levels. These books deftly combine text and art to create a positive experience for new readers. School Library Journal This series dares to make entertaining reads from short texts and familiar vocabulary. Kirkus Reviews Each one makes the hard world of learning to read enough fun to encourage children at this critical developmental moment to try another one. Vicky Smith, Childrens and YA Editor at Kirkus Reviews
