

Elijah: Finding Victory in the Battle of Defeat

Taking a walk through 1 Kings, we follow a man appearing out of nowhere, coming on the scene like a roaring lion. Elijah condemned a nation, refuted a king, and challenged an idol, only to be sidelined by his own frustrations and fears. Would God render him useless, or show him His glory and renew his mission? This four-week study consists of stirring accounts from Elijah's ministry along with practical questions and scripture searches. Many of the truths brought out, relate to everyday feelings encompassing the need for godly provision of daily necessities, God's timing in difficult circumstances, frustrations over others' actions, fear of the enemy, and distractions from our calling due to physical exhaustion, or mental upset.
