

Vincent J. Muggs Googles the Earth

Vincent J. Muggs is a nine-year-old boy who loves to explore. In this book, he Googles the Earth and visits twelve of the worlds most famous sites. His boyish humor will please adults as well as children. The glossary words are arranged in order from the page in which they appear in the book and provide extra learning opportunities. This is the second childrens book written by John Fairbanks Hanna. His first book, Vincent J. Muggs What If, tells about the same curious boys wonderings about lifes scenarios. Now retired, John Fairbanks Hanna was an elementary school teacher and principal for thirty-six years. I loved seeing the inquisitive nature of children. He resides in Huntington, West Virginia.
