

But God (The continuing works of April Eberhardt)

Discouragement can occur at anytime. Obstacles can arise when we least expect it. Uncertainty can cast doubt within us. As people connected by common, everyday experiences, these episodes in life are something that can happen to all of us at any point, in some form or fashion. As Christians, we know that we have an all seeing, all knowing, ever present God who is waiting for us to call on Him for help. We can rest in faith believing that He can do all things according to His will, and that we can cast our burdens upon Him. He is here for all of us. The sooner we grasp this truth, the better we will be able to cope with our challenges, no matter how big or small. When we are weak, He is strong. In this illustrated poem, the Eberhardt children face some obstacles but they stick it out, and the outcome is better than they thought it would be. This illustrated poem is intended to show even the youngest among us that when we have faith in God, help is on the way!
