(Burst) Nowescaped form the juvenile catalog and running wild with adults!Its funny, its funan irresistible spoof!With tongue planted firmly in cheek, this dino owners manual amusingly explains what every human must know before adopting a new saurus. Find out what should go into the basic toolkit (a stout shovel is helpful and so are reinforced gauntlets); which species thrive in household life and which will cause BIG problems; and what dinosaurs are just right for circuses and zoos, in security, and for giving eggs and meat. The illustrations cleverly mix photography and art to bring humans and dinos together for the first time.
