

Road Rocket

Noble Old Heap! That's what Woody Ahern, president of the Road Rockets, thought when he first saw the big old 47 Ford. And when the motor roared to life, Woody knew he had to have it—no matter what he had to do to get it! Here is the action-packed novel of a car crazy kid, who learned the hard way that he couldn't own a car just for a few bucks and a little elbow grease! Henry Gregor Felsen was the master story-teller of hot rod fiction. Millions of readers have thrilled to his other outstanding bestsellers, Hot Rod, Street Rod, Rag Top, Fever Heat, and Crash Club. First published in the 1950s, his children, Dan Felsen and Holly Felsen Welch, have republished these popular books for the fans who loved them as teens, and to introduce a new generation to the world of 50s hot rodding.
