

The Turtle Who Did His Best

The Turtle Who Did His Best has 575 words and is a rhyming book aimed towards children approximately between the ages of 4-8. Can a meek and unnoticeable turtle face the challenges that await him when he goes up for the big contest. This book is based on the confidence one hopes to have when facing a tough situation no matter if they dont fit the part, and hopefully encourage others to do the same. A small and simple turtle is waiting in line to be apart of a daring contest. He is surrounded by the type of turtles that take on dangerous challenges, and they seem to think he is lost. Bernadine, who wants to show him he doesnt belong, tries to slow this little fellow down and ends up cracking his shell. He makes it through, and unbelievably with the fastest time. He lets Bernadine know that it is okay, and has something to say, I did my best and that is what its all about.
