

Sammy Goes Flying

Sammy's grandma helps him learn to fly in this affectionate portrait of a multicultural extended family, with all-new illustrations. Sammy dreams of flying. His older siblings are going on a school trip to an airplane museum, but Sammy is too small to go. Then Grandma plans a magical day out just for Sammy. This empowering story for every young child who is often too small to take part contains beautiful illustrations of flight, including a spread of London from above.
