

Longman Coordinated Science: Teachers and Technicians Guide

This is a post-Dearing 14-16 science course designed to support students, teachers and technicians, combining a traditional approach with some innovative features. The teachers and technicians guide offers advice on how to use the resources effectively in school. It suggests ways of introducing each chapter to the class, includes lists of apparatus required for the copymasters, offers ideas for integrating IT into teaching, provides answers to numerical questions, and contains advice from experts on setting-up practicals and carrying out risk assessments.
