

The Art of Jewish Cooking

This is a basic book for cooks who want to pamper their families with the most international way of preparing fine food. Here are recipes, all of them adapted to your kitchen, for pirogen from Poland, gefilte fish and pancakes from Germany, goulashes from Hungary, the tender lamb of Israel-all the heart-warming goodness of typically Jewish dishes, chicken-in-the-pot simmering in golden juices, feathery matzo balls, aromatic, fresh-baked challah, blintzes, latkes, kreplach, Hamentaschen, rich cakes and goodies. Over 300 delicious recipes from the master hand of an expert on Jewish cooking.
