

William Howard Taft: A Myreportlinks.com Book (Presidents)

From founding fathers, such as George Washington and Thomas Jefferson, to presidential heroes, such as Abraham Lincoln and Franklin D. Roosevelt, MyReportLinks.com Books offer a complete library of the United States presidents. Each book in the Presidents series explores the life and political career of an American president. Each book includes color photographs, 48 pages, chapter notes, a further reading list, a highlights page, and an index. The Report Links take the reader to the best Web sites, source documents, and photos related to each president. In six informative chapters, author Kim A. O'Connell explores the life of our nations twenty-seventh president in William Howard Taft. During his term as president, Taft continued many of Theodore Roosevelt's progressive policies, and New Mexico and Arizona were admitted to the Union. Following his administration, Taft became the only president to serve as chief justice of the Supreme Court.
