

With Much Fire in the Heart: The Letters of Mohammed Mrabet to Irving Stettner Translated by Paul Bowles

Letters written 1979-1986. Biographical information and stories. Henry Miller wrote to Mrabet: The fact that you can not read has perhaps made you a better writer than most who do read. Paul Bowles said: Ive been corresponding with Irving Stettner for several years. Everyone tells me he is a delightful man. Mrabet does write him letters. I dont ghostwrite them; I merely translate them as he dictates. Irving Stettner, prose writer, poet and watercolorist; friend of Henry Miller; published Stroker magazine for 30 years.
